New art gallery to launch 'Waterways' exhibit at stroll

Thursday, 01 December 2011 14:04

Heather Gaudio Fine Art, a contemporary art gallery at 21 South Avenue, will be joining the annual New Canaan Holiday Stroll celebration with an evening gallery exhibition reception from 6 to 9 p.m. on Friday, December 2, with the launch of its "Waterways" exhibit, a collection of aqueous photographs showcasing the work of photographers George Diebold, Shawna Ankenbrandt, Ethan Boisvert, Michael Dweck, and Kim Keever.

George Diebold

The exhibition will also include Cornelia Kubler Kavanagh's painted bronze Tsunami sculptures. Waterways will run through Thursday, January 26.

Three works of art by Diebold will be featured in Waterways. "His portfolio features a collection of photographs that highlight his unique style and focus on dramatic lighting, intense color and meticulous attention to detail," said Gaudio. Diebold spends most of his time on the road or in his second studio in Hawaii. His work is part of the permanent collection of American Landscapes at the Montclair Art Museum and the Cleveland Museum of Art. His Web site is georgediebold.com.

Heather Gaudio Fine Art gallery is open Tuesday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and by appointment. For more information, call Gaudio at 203-801-9590 or e-mail info@heathergaudiofineart.com.
